

Windward Advisors Served as Financial Advisor to MeadWestvaco's Divestiture of Specialty Papers Mill

RICHMOND, VA — Windward Advisors, LLC, announced they served as exclusive financial advisor to MeadWestvaco Corporation (MWV) for the company's sale of its Specialty Papers Cedar mill in Potsdam, NY, to Potsdam Specialty Paper Inc. (PSPI). The sale is expected to close in the third quarter. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

PSPI is part of an investment holding company with offices in NY, Hong Kong, and Toronto, that has the financial resources to continue growing the business, expanding the product portfolio, investing in the people and facilities, and rapidly expanding the global reach of the business to new customers. PSPI will be part of a portfolio of global businesses that focus on niche products and markets in the value added paper and coatings distribution business.

"I am appreciative of the comprehensive support provided by the Windward Advisors team to help execute this transaction, and pleased that PSPI will be part of a fast growing, global portfolio of specialty products holdings," said Mike Huth, president of MWV Specialty Papers.

The mill's current management team will remain in place following the sale, and all employees will transition to PSPI following the completion of the sale.
